PASCHA 2003 AT THE CATHEDRAL

Christos Anesti: Alithos Anesti! Christ is Risen: Truly He is Risen! Maseeh Kam: Hukin Kam! Christos Voskres: Voistino Voskres! Kristi Unjal: Verte Unjal! Christos A Inviat: Adeverat Ca Inviat! Christos Tesnsiu: Oue Tensiu! Christos Tanasa: Awon Tanasa! Ke To Yeee Fou Woo: Ta Zhen De Ee Fu Woo! Le Christ est Ressucite: Vraiment il est Ressucite! Christo es Resucitado: Vertaderramente es Resucitado! Christo e Risorto: Realmente e Risorto! Christus ist auferstanden! Wahraf auferstanden!

In these languages--Greek, English, Arabic, Russian, Albanian, Rumanian, Tegrinian, Amharic, Chinese, French, Spanish, Italian, German, and others--we proclaimed the Resurrection of Christ. The Resurrection of Christ, as the foundational event that gave rise to the Christian faith, fills us with Faith in the Risen Lord, and hope, as we express it in the Creed, "for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the coming age."

Over Holy Week, with some seventeen services, some of them three hours long, thousands of people, from Palm Sunday, through Bright Monday (when we observed the Feast of St. George the Great Martyr) passed through the Cathedral. This year, Palm Sunday services, led by His Eminence Metropolitan Anthony of San Francisco, were held in the Korinthias Center, rather than the Chapel, in order to accommodate the many who attended. Nothing, though, fills one with hope and connects one to the Eternal One than the sharing of the Paschal Light, as the priest intones: Come receive the light, from the Unwaning Light, and glorify Christ, risen from the dead! Not only did we connect with another and with God in the context of the services, but in the many fellowship meals, from Palm Sunday, to Holy Friday, to the Paschal meal. But nothing was as rewarding as our visitation to those who are home-bound or institutionalized or hospitalized, or even our visitation to shelters and orphanages. "As you have done it to the least of these my brethren, you have done it to me," Jesus reminds us (Matthew 25.40).

May Pascha be for us and for all the world an ongoing connection and renewal, not just a once-a-year observance. May it signal new life for the living, those who toil and struggle, even for those who reside in the grave.

Christ is Risen!

του Χριστού, εμπνέει δε ελπίδα και αγάπη, ακόμα συγχώρηση και αλληλεγγύη: Είπωμεν αδελφοί και τοῖς μισοῦσιν ἡμᾶς· συγχωρήσωμεν πάντα τῇ Ἀναστάσει... Εἶθεν ἡ Ἀνάστασις του Χριστού να ανανεώσει τις ψυχές και τις καρδιές όλων των κατοίκων της γης και φέρει ειρήνην στον κόσμο.

ΧΡΙΣΤΟΣ ΑΝΕΣΤΗ:
ΑΛΗΘΩΣ ΑΝΕΣΤΗ!

Η κραυγή αυτή που ακούστηκε και στον Καθεδρικό Ναό εφέτος και σε όλο τον κόσμο, σε όλες τις γλώσσες του κόσμου, αποτελεί την βασική χριστιανική πίστη στην Ανάσταση

WEDNESDAY, MAY 21

Parishioners of the Cathedral are invited to the first regular Parish Assembly for 2003, which will be held on Wednesday, May 21, 2003 at the Cathedral Center at 7:00 p.m. A special mailing will outline the agenda, which will include, in addition to opening prayer, election of the assembly chairman, approval of the minutes of the November 17, 2002 Parish Assembly, treasurer's report, Phase II report and discussion, election of Nominating Committee/Board of Elections, election of Board of Auditors, Old Business, New Business, and closing prayer. The Assembly is timed to last no more than one hour.

Please be reminded that, in accordance with the provisions of Article VII, Section 4 of the Uniform Parish Regulations of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese, a Parish Assembly consists of members of the Parish who have met their financial obligations to the Parish in accordance with the Parish By-Laws. This Section requires that those who are eligible to participate in the Assembly are: 1. those who have met their 2002 financial obligations to the Cathedral and have submitted their 2003 stewardship pledge; 2. those who have submitted their 2003 pledge to the Cathedral by February 21, 2003 if they are new members. A quorum consists of either: 1) 75% of the members of the Parish Council, an equal number of parishioners, and the Dean (or a total of 25 people) or 2) if there are fewer than 75% of the Parish Council members present, then a total of 75 people in good standing. # FOCUS ON YOUTH

"FOREVER ANGELS"

by Desiderius Erasmus

In our March 2002 edition of the Herald, there appeared an article by me, Desiderius Erasmus, entitled "Look Homeward Angels." In this article, I praised the accomplishments of our girl's high school basketball team over the past 5 years and, with melancholy, told them, "Look homeward, Angels, you will always be in our hearts."

I thought it would be interesting to visit coach Mike Canellos a year later and see how our "new" girl's high school basketball team was doing. I caught up to Mike after one of his practices and casually asked him how he felt, now that his "Angels" were gone. He smiled and said, "Where did they go?" I reminded him that they had graduated last year and that I had written about it in the Herald.

Mike responded, "I think your article, though excellent, informative, and most eloquent, was premature. At the time of your article, Desiderius, I, too, thought an era of basketball had come to an end. To be honest with you, I was even preparing to finally retire from coaching. However, at the team's first practice, I asked the new girls what they would like to be called. (As you know, Desiderius, I have a habit of nicknaming my players). I suggested "Little Devils" or, perhaps, "The No Names! One of the girls rather boldly answered, "We are the Angels." Caught off guard, I answered, "the Angels graduated last year." "No," the girl replied, "your players may have graduated last season, but the spirit of the Annunciation Angels remains. We are the Angels!" I immediately thought, well, at least they have the attitude of my Angels. As the weeks passed, Desiderius, I realized what this young lady had tried to teach me. Yes, Stephanie, Mary, Sara, Mariella, Candace and Natalie may have graduated, but the spirit of hard work, dedication, and love, which symbolizes the Annunciation, is now manifested in our Angels."

On Sunday, April 13, our Angels won their 6th consecutive championship, bringing their overall record to 47 wins and 1 loss.

SUGAR AND SPICE

by Desiderius Erasmus

What are little girls made of? Sugar and spice and all that is nice. Well, here at the Annunciation Cathedral, our recipe uses not only "sugar and spice and all that is nice," but also a pinch of a most magical ingredient, called "tude." As a wise wizard once revealed, it is this enchanted element known as "tude" which enables one to overcome insurmountable obstacles, and to achieve the impossible.

First discovered by the sorceress Circe and later claimed by Odysseus, "tude" has been cherished throughout the ages. Here at the Annunciation we have been entrusted with this most precious gift and have pledged to use it judiciously.

However, this past girl's basketball season, we experienced a phenomenon that suggests our coaches perhaps sprinkled a little too much "tude." Our 3 girls teams, ages 8 to 18, posted a combined record of 21 wins and 0 losses. They captured three League Championships and three Tournament Championships. After checking through the Annunciation athletic archives, we have determined that this level of success has never been achieved by any girls teams before. Congratulations to all our young ladies.

Before congratulating coaches John Kallas and Michael Misthos of our girls C team, coaches Ari Stratakis and Mike Canellos of our girls A team, and Mary and Mike Canellos of our girls high school team, I strongly advise them, "be cautious and vigilant," the formula is most powerful.

Congratulations to all!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

SAVE THE DATE

Sunday School will sponsor an Appreciation Luncheon for Effie and Andrew Vellis on Sunday, September 7, 2003 (opening day of Sunday School). Proceeds from this event will benefit the Building Fund.

JULIANNA ROTTER A WINNER!

Congratulations to Julianna Rotter, first place, senior division, winner in the District Oratorical Festival held at the Nativity Church in Novato, April 13th. Julianna competes for the Metropolis Award at the St. Nicholas Ranch and Retreat Center on May 10th. We wish her well!

NEED TO RECRUIT

Four (4) new Sunday School teachers and assistants are needed as we begin the 2003-2004 school year, which resumes September 7. Search within and see whether you have that special gift of teaching. Our precious children will benefit, as you will by teaching them the way of the Lord. Please call Denise Yeilding at 415 585-5883 or Father Stephen at the Cathedral at 415 864-8000.

SUNDAY SCHOOL GRADUATION AND LUNCHEON

This last day of Sunday School, June 8, a luncheon celebrating our children, will take place immediately following the Divine Liturgy in our community center. Everyone is welcome to join this celebratory, complimentary luncheon of hamburgers, hot dogs, and the works.

SUMMER CAMP AT ST. NICHOLAS

There will be two sessions of summer camp at St. Nicholas Ranch and Retreat Center: July 13-19 and July 20-26.

For information and to download application forms, log onto the Ranch's website, www.stnicholas-ranch.org. Or, contact the Ranch at 559 338-2103.

ANNUNCIATION SUMMER CAMP

Annunciation Cathedral's 4th Annual Family Camping Trip will take place August 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5, 2003 at the Casini Ranch Family Campground on the Russian River. As in past years, campers and their families will experience the beauty and excitement of California's north coast at this camp site, nestled on the historic Russian River. Here, hiking, bicycling, volleyball, softball, horseshoes and fishing will be enjoyed, as well as relaxation along the river in a canoe or by the beach.

Because the camp is taking place in August, Father Stephen will be able to visit on one or more occasions. Following the celebration of the Paraclesis, or Service of Consolation, at the Cathedral (this service is celebrated Monday through Friday, during the first 15 days of August, at 10 a.m.), Father Stephen will visit the camp site and celebrate the service there.

Space is, of course, limited. Reservations, therefore, are on a first come, first serve basis. For a family of 2 persons, the cost is $220; for 3 persons it is $240; for 4 persons it is $260; and for 5 persons it is $280. There is a 1 tent limit per family. The above prices include all meals, but not the tent. Reservations and fees are due by July 11, 2003. For reservations and information, please call: Ari Stratakis; Days: 650 737-0430; Evenings: 650 588-5072.

OTHER YOUTH ACTIVITIES

For the youth of the Annunciation Cathedral, the beginning of the year 2003 has been a most active and rewarding one. In January, the Annunciation sponsored four youth basketball teams, ages 8 to 14. Our two Junior Varsity girls teams went undefeated, winning both league and championships. Our two Junior Varsity boys teams, though failing to win a championship, were highly competitive.

In early January, our GOYA (young people between the ages of 13 and 18) met to plan its agenda for the year. As its first fund raiser, our GOYA, with the sponsorship of our Ladies Philoptochos, cleaned and restored our kitchen and hall after our annual crab feed. In February, our youth took a break from basketball to participate in FDF (Folk Dance Festival). The Annunciation was represented by three groups: Ta Angelakia, Philadelfakia, and Kymata. Kymata placed third in dance and one in the Judges Choral Award. Philadelfakia placed fourth in dance and was awarded the Board of Directors Achievement Award. Ta Angelakia participated in the exhibition division, where competition awards are not given, though each child was acknowledged with a special medal. In March, the Annunciation participated in the OYAA by sponsoring seven young adult teams. Our high school girls and boys teams went undefeated in league play, culminating in first place awards. While the boys were upset in the season-ending tournament, our girls continued their success by becoming tournament champions. Not to be outdone by our high school girls, our men's B-4 team also won both league and tournament championships. On Sunday, March 23rd, 18 of our youth participated in the St. John Chrysostom Oratorical Festival, hosted at the Annunciation. Winners at the Annunciation Cathedral festival were: for the senior division: Julianna Rotter, and for the junior division: Stephanie Kalligeros and Stephanie Rotter. After participating at the District Festival April 13th, Julianna Rotter has qualified to represent the district in the Metropolis Festival Finals on May 9th and 10th at St. Nicholas Ranch.

On March 28, our GOYA held a fellowship sleepover. Over 30 youth and advisors were in attendance. After first being present at the Third Salutations Service, our youth adjourned to the Korinthias Center for a wonderful spaghetti dinner. Following dinner, Father Stephen invited our youth to sit and freely discuss many of today's perplexing issues. The following morning, after a hearty meal, our GOYA proceeded to set up for the following day's Greek Independence Day celebration. Our GOYA, working in conjunction with our dance groups, helped produce a most successful glendi. On Sunday, April 6, our Sunday School held an open house to display their works of love and devotion. Together, our JOY and GOYA began the Easter celebration by sponsoring a palm-tying brunch on Saturday, April 19th. During the Holy Week that followed, the Annunciation's youth participated as angels, altar boys, and readers at the Presanctified Liturgy. On Good Friday, close to 100 youth attended the TGI Pascha event. Now a popular annual event, TGI Pascha is a vehicle for gathering our youth, and helping them to nurture their Christian faith and identity.

IONIAN VILLAGE- FAR BUT NOT-SO-FAR

Ionian Village is a summer camp setting along the Ionian Sea, owned and operated by the Archdiocese of America. Its summer programs are usually sold-out well in advance. Therefore, if you are interested in considering Ionian Village for your children, or for yourself, we recommend that you inquire early.

Ionian Village operates three programs:

1. A Summer Travel Camp, for 7th-9th grades, June 30 - July 17
2. Byzantine Adventure, 10th-12th grades, July 23- August 9
3. Spiritual Odyssey, Ages 19-30, July 13 - July 28.

Each of these programs affords the participant the opportunity of visiting historical sites throughout Greece, in addition to the program at the Village itself. The Cathedral office has some brochures describing these programs in detail. Or, if you prefer, visit the web site at www.ionianvillage.org, or contact Ionian Village at (646) 519-6190 or via email at ionianvillage@goarch.org.
